"The Art of Maintaining A Loving Focus" John Bengston, Lay Leader

Is it an art or a discipline? Or is it, perhaps, a discipline that becomes an art? Or, can it become an art? Is it possible that maintaining a loving focus can change our lives for the better and have a ripple effect for those with whom we come in contact? Is it possible to maintain a loving focus even when we are angry? We explored these questions together to see how this strategy might change our lives and the world around us. A YouTube video has been posted of John's reflections, click HERE to view.
