Building Community Since 1830

Rev. Terry Cummings, Interim Minister

BOARD UPDATE REGARDING OUR MEETING HOUSE.

In keeping with current CDC guidelines the USH Board recently decided that until further notice, all individuals entering the Meeting House will be required to wear masks.

Masks will be provided for those who do not have one.

In addition, seating during in-person worship services will be arranged accordingly, in keeping with social distancing concerns.

Signs will be posted at the Meeting House concerning the above.

Pulpit Guest Margaret Leicach

During her decades of membership at USH, Margaret Leicach helped start and lead the Small Group Ministry program at USH in its formative years and was the first Chair of the Council on Community Within. She is a Past Chair of Worship Associates and has several times been a delegate to the General Assembly of the UUA . She is the mother of three grown daughters, mother-in-law to 3 amazing sons-in-law, and grandmother to two wonderful grandchildren.

Worship Associate Sue Smolski

Sue Smolski is a long-term member of USH. Worship, Small Group Ministry, and Artist's Way adult programs have been key to her active involvement in this church community. She has attended in-person Regional Meetings, workshops about worship, and has been one of our in-person delegates at a General Assembly of the UUA. One of our Worship Associates, she has begun a second term as Worship Associate Coordinator.

Updates from the Board

The consensus at Tuesday's (8/17) USH board meeting is to move ahead with plans for in-person, in-sanctuary Ingathering services on Sunday, September 12.

Here's what you should know:

- We continue to follow CDC guidance; right now, that guidance is for everyone to wear a mask indoors, regardless of vaccination status. Bring and wear your mask; if you forget, we have a supply and will give you one.
- The sanctuary is large enough to accommodate comfortably all who are likely to come. We can spread out, maintaining reasonable distance from each other. It's likely that alternate pews will be cordoned off to facilitate separation.
- We will continue to livestream the service on multiple platforms... you will be able to participate, even if you cannot be here in person! The capacity to feature virtual participation has been one of the (few) ongoing benefits of the pandemic.
- The building has been maintained at high standards, and is in great shape. Recommended cleaning protocols have been followed scrupulously. The space is well-ventilated.
- We expect many will be hesitant to return, possibly for a very long time — and that's perfectly fine! Stay home, and join us on Vimeo, Facebook, or Zoom (including coffee hour). However, you choose to be here, you are welcome.
- Speaking of coffee hour, we're planning for refreshments to be set up outside if the weather's decent. We can mingle at discreet distances and spread out a little more. (Note: there will be cookies!)

The last item, and it's rather important: services will start at our previously-customary time of 10:30. Of course, if you come at 10, that simply gives you more time to visit. And, whenever and however, you come, we'll be so happy to see you!

USH Community & Business

Please take note that the next Board meeting will be on September 14th at 6:30pm via Zoom

Here We Go Again

One week can feel like a long time, particularly when that week vividly recalls sensations of Covid-19's juggernaut blasting into our consciousness.

Remember, back in March 2020, how Sunday the 8th carried a nagging unease... foreboding... menace... ?

Through that week, dire reports flew in. Horrendous details spurred evasive action; one could figuratively (and literally) hear doors slam as businesses shuttered, plans cancelled, office workers and students were sent home, and those fortunate enough to have private spaces dove hastily into their burrows. The USH choir rehearsed Wednesday evening for a planned Music Sunday which did not happen; within hours a decision was made to cancel in-person services and events (in line with state and federal mandates) "until further notice".

In recent weeks, those earlier anxieties reverberated. The news remains worrisome... dismaying... frustrating. We'd come this far and saw daylight beckoning — and now this. The good news: thanks to the vaccines' effectiveness we probably won't become (too) ill. The bad news: we are able to pass the virus to others.

It's been our hope to resume live-and-in-person gatherings this fall. That may still be possible or — maybe not. We don't know yet. No one knows. September 12 is now less than four weeks away, and predictions at this stage remain mere guesses. The crystal ball just isn't that good. What we can do is ensure all CDC and state/local recommended precautions are in place so we — including those of us fully-vaccinated — do not contribute unknowingly to the virus' further spread.

If you come to the Meeting House, please wear a mask, wash your hands, keep your distance. We still hope to return in September, though modifications may be in order. Mitigation strategies have been employed elsewhere, and may be useful for us.

The board will continue to monitor the situation and adjust our approach as necessary. We'll keep you posted. And keep in mind: we will get through this!

Some of this information and conjecture is superceded by board decisions on 8/17/2021. See our UPDATE for the latest intentions... and keep in mind that circumstances quickly change.

Village for Families and Children

Uniform Fundraiser for The Village

For the ninth year USH has opened its heart to The Village for Families and Children. The Village is sponsoring its Uniform Fundraiser to help families buy school specific uniforms for their children. No more sweats allowed in the classroom!

As of last Thursday (August 12th) USH had collected $1,496 for the Uniform Fundraiser. WOW!

THE FUNDRAISER ENDS THIS SUNDAY AUGUST 22nd

Thank you to all who have already given.

As children struggle past their year of isolation and online learning, let us grow that amount.

Checks should be made to The Unitarian Society of Hartford, with uniforms in the memo line.

Mail them to: USH attn: Brian Mullen c/o USH, 50 Bloomfield Ave.

Summer Worship -
"Embracing and Releasing"

Summer worship at USH is layered by thoughtful, observant, caring and committed members of our congregation. The theme of "Embracing and Releasing" will bring sermons opening us to contemplation of the array of emotions and insights we have encountered in the many months since March 2020. So much has happened: our lives, our sleep, our families and friends, the very structure of our days have been affected yet we keep on keeping on.

Most importantly, anticipate creative thoughtful summer worship services led by members of our congregation during July and until Ingathering Sunday in September.

August 22 - "Making Peace with the Pandemic" - Margaret Leicach/ Sue Smolski

August 29 - "Happiness In the Midst of Chaos" - Rob Spector

Sept 5 - "You Can ('t) Go Home Again"- Laurie Kelliher

On July 18th, the worship team was livestreamed from our sanctuary using our new equipment for the first time. The August 15th service will be livestreamed as well. All other services are planned to remain in the on-line format we have been using until Ingathering Sunday, September 12th, when we plan to resume in-person worship at the Meeting House with livestreaming available.

Sunday Welcome Volunteers

These summer days are racing past. September will be here all too soon... back to actual school for some, the relief of cooler days for others.

At USH, the hope is to return fully to in-our-sanctuary worship, and Fellowship Hall-based "Coffee Hour". To do that, we need those Welcome Volunteers who previously were so instrumental in greeting members, friends, and visitors, to help them feel at home here.

Were you part of the Welcome Team? Or is this something you'd like to try?? If you're new, or haven't been around much lately (and who has??), greeting is a terrific way to meet lots of smiling people and feel an instant connection with the community.

Buffie has developed a SignUpGenius "invite"; where you can easily select dates which work for you. You can be a greeter, an usher, or a welcome table volunteer. The link is below; if you have questions, let Buffie know and the answer will be revealed to you.

See Sign Up Genius Link HERE. Please contact Buffie at hartforduusociety@gmail.com for any assistance or additional questions.

Meetings at the Meeting House!
Here's what to do if your group wants to meet in person at USH. The list isn't exhaustive... someone always comes up with some additions... but it'll get us started:

The events calendar on the website is our central hub for all meetings and reserving space.

Assuming there are conflicts for day, time, and space you wish to reserve, contact Buffie at hartforduusociety@gmail.com and copy Rayla at ctraylab@gmail.com to ensure no rental conflicts

If your gathering includes people participating virtually, arrange with Buffie to reserve one of USH's Zoom links. One of the benefits of the pandemic comes from broadening virtual connections; let's take advantage of this to continue including those unable to be here in person.

At the end of your gathering please tidy up and leave things organized for the next group. (You know... re-set the thermostat; turn lights out; don't leave dirty dishes, etc.)

These basic acts of courtesy and consideration once were second nature and will be so again once we reacclimate. Be gentle with yourselves and with each other, and enjoy being together again.

Email and Listservs to Change

The plan to move our USH Web to a new provider and change staff email addresses to Gmail services is progressing as expected. This will result in fewer outgoing emails not delivered to USH members because of suspicion of spam.

At this point, old ushartford.com email addresses to staff members are being sent to their new or continuing Gmail addresses. This will not continue after September 30.

The continuing or new addresses are:

Rev. Terry Cummings revterryush@gmail.com

Buffie Pinney hartforduusociety@gmail.com

Brian Mullen bmullen@ushartford.com

Rayla Mattson ctraylab@gmail.com

Sam Moffett smoffettuu@gmail.com

Dianne Daniels ushinterndd@gmail.com

You can help by recording these addresses in you contacts folder or equivalent and use them going forward.

Programs for Adults and Families

Spirituality for UUs

This is the foundational course in the UUSpiritLife series. UUism is a religion without a creed so it can leave some people wondering how to develop their innate spirituality. This program includes many experiential opportunities to discover what types of spiritual activities resonate with you as we chart a path to a deeper and more personal spirituality. This is a rigorous course with homework after each session and will require a couple of hours of non-class time per week. One of last year's participants said, "Judy and Rick create a warm, enjoyable class that also goes deep." The class will be on zoom, open to members of all three area congregations, facilitated by Rick Tsukada and Judy Robbins. 12 weekly sessions on Tuesday mornings 10-noon, Sept 7-Nov 23, 2021. For registration or more information: judyrobb2@gmail.com.

Adult Programs:

The USH Book Club: Meets monthly, on the 2nd Thursday, 2:30 – 4:30 pm, via Zoom. All adults in the USH community are welcome. Please contact Ginny Allen at fiddlenurse1@gmail.com if you'd like more information or if you want to join. An email with Zoom link will be sent a day or two before the meeting.

20's/30's Group: If you would like to join, please email Tara Cote at tcote11@gmail.com.

Disability Support Group:

This group meets on line the first Saturday of each month at 10 a..m. The zoom link is sent a few days prior to the meeting. In this group participants discuss the challenges of physical disability (chronic illness, chronic pain, impaired senses, impaired mobility) and emotional pain (loss, mental illness) and the stresses of caretaking a loved one. What is said in the group stays in the group.

Abbie Gardner is a fiery dobro player with an infectious smile. Whether performing solo or with Americana darlings Red Molly, her tales of love and loss, both gritty and sweet, are propelled by her impeccable slide guitar chops. Her solo live show is truly unique – as an award-winning songwriter, captivating vocalist, & world-class dobro player.

Solo performances feature truly unique use of the dobro as a solo instrument, bouncing between a solid rhythmic backbone and ripping lead lines all in support of her voice and songs.

No Depression says she displays “uncommon versatility” on her 2018 CD Wishes on a Neon Sign. The recording is a fully-produced collection of 12 original songs featuring one co-written with Chris Stapleton. After his first listen, WFUV’s John Platt raves, “she’s not only a first-rate Dobro player, but a songwriter to be reckoned with.”

With the help of patrons, Abbie has spent the last year making the record she’s always wanted to make. It’s intimate, real and raw – her dobro and voice recorded at home, without a band or any studio tricks to hide behind. The result is stunning – you can hear every breath, every chuckle, as if you are in the room with her. The opening track, Down the Mountain, starts with a powerful bluesy stomp, but later begs, “send my prayers down the river in little paper boats, they’re too heavy for heaven so I hope they float.” The song, See You Again, encapsulates the loneliness and sense of restless waiting we’ve all been feeling in the line “even time holds her breath.” In the space since her previous record, Abbie’s vocals and dobro playing have both matured to share the spotlight equally. Though, in this case, the stage is a tiny recording studio and the spotlight a candle.

Scott Cook – October 15, 2021 50 Bloomfield Ave. at 7:30 p.m.

tickets: <https://scottcook.bpt.me>

listen: https://youtu.be/6R0W_QbGhr8

Scott Cook distills the stories collected over twelve years touring across Canada, the USA, Europe, Asia, Australia and elsewhere into straight-talking, keenly observant verse. Road-worn, painfully honest, and deeply human, his tunes weave threads of folk, roots, blues, soul and country over spacious fingerstyle guitar and clawhammer banjo arrangements.

Prairie balladeer Scott Cook is an Edmonton-based, world-traveling songwriter with heart forever on sleeve.

His fourth release, One More Time Around, was nominated for a Canadian Folk Music Award, and its opening track “Pass It Along” won the Folk and Acoustic category in the 2013 UK Songwriting Contest, with UK magazine Maverick Country naming him “one of Canada’s most inspiring and imaginative storytellers”.

In 2015 he put together a seven-piece honky-tonk band for his fifth studio album, Scott Cook and the Long Weekends Go Long.

In 2017 he released his sixth album Further Down the Line, earning his second Canadian Folk Music Award nomination, for English Songwriter of the Year. The album is packaged in a 132-page softcover book offering a look back, in words and pictures, on his last decade of near-incessant rambling.

Falcon Ridge Folk Festival has announced Scott Cook won the 2019 Emerging Artists Showcase and will perform as one of 2020’s Most Wanted Artists. Cook was one of 24 contestants and won “with an amazing 49% of voters in his corner,” according to Anne Saunders, the festival’s artistic director.

Cook is one of the hardest-working DIY troubadours on the road today, averaging over 150 shows and a dozen festivals every year since 2007. All the hard miles notwithstanding, he still believes that songs can change your life, and your life can change the world.

Vance Gilbert – November 19, 2021 50 Bloomfield Ave. at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets: <https://vancegilbert.bpt.me>

Vance Gilbert’s website

Listen: <https://vimeo.com/377104057>

“If Joni Mitchell and Richie Havens had a love child, with Rodney Dangerfield as the midwife, the results might have been something close to the great Vance Gilbert.” As the above quote from Richmond magazine suggests, Vance Gilbert defies stereotypes. It’s little wonder then that he also exceeds expectations. In this case, those two qualities go hand in hand. “I’m black, I sing, I play an acoustic guitar, and I don’t play the blues,” Gilbert insists. That may be a broad statement, but it rings with truth.

His remarkable rapport with his audiences and his free spirited performances inspired one critic to hail him as “a folkie trapped in a vaudevillian body,” with “a voice that could have been on the opera stage, a wit that could have been on a comedy stage and a songwriting talent that's thrust him on the folk stage for decades."

Those descriptive phrases come to full fruition on Gilbert's current album, the appropriately named Good, Good Man. Recorded with an A-list support cast that includes bluesman and singer/songwriter Chris Smither, Al Green's organist Stacey Wade, Tommy Malone of the Subdudes on guitars, Mike Posner on backing vocals, and Celtic harpist and vocalist Aine Minough, it sums up the strengths that Gilbert's always had at his command — that is, a gift for compelling melodies, insightful lyrics, a witty and whimsical point of view, and the ability to maintain an inherent humanity that translates to his connection with his audiences.

As always, the music is as varied as it is vibrant, from the philosophic musings of "Pie and Whiskey" and the rollicking R&B-flavored title track, to the swinging sound of "Zombie Pattycake," the tender trappings of "Hitman" and the bare-bones remake of the 1972 hit "Wildflower," a seminal song given Gilbert's intimate and essential additives.

In short, it's Gilbert at his very best, a set of songs that deserves to bring Gilbert the wider recognition that's eluded him for far too long.

Over the course of his career, he's carved out a singular niche with songs that have resonated with his fans and drawn in new listeners. His classic compositions — "Old White Men," "Charlene" and "Unfamiliar Moon," "Goodbye Pluto," and "Waiting for Gilligan" — are emotive and profound, offering certain truths in ways that make a meaningful impact in the most enduring and evocative ways.

Indeed, Gilbert possesses a wide palette and perspective, from a co-write with Grammy Winner Lori McKenna, "House of Prayer," to a song on a Grammy-nominated children's record by the duo Trout Fishing in America. Likewise, after alt-rock star Mike Posner heard Gilbert perform on a podcast, he invited him to take part in co-writing sessions and subsequently to sing on his recent single, "Noah's Ark." Posner reciprocated with a haunting background vocal on "Flyby," a song featured on Gilbert's forthcoming album. "How rounded is that?", Gilbert may quip. Truth is, ultimately, it's the impact that he has on his audiences that matters to him the most. "People take away from these songs what they decide they're going to take away," he reflects. "I would hope they walk away thinking. If that's the case, then I've done my job successfully."

Reggie Harris and Pat Wictor – December 17, 2021

50 Bloomfield Ave. at 7:30 p.m.

Websites: <https://reggieharrismusic.com/>

<https://www.patwictor.com/>

Tickets: <https://reggieharris.bpt.me>

listen: <https://youtu.be/aiYrmt2V3ao>

Reggie Harris has been dubbed an "Ambassador of Joy, Hope, and Freedom," and his new album, On Solid Ground, captures all of those qualities.

The lead track, "It's Who We Are," introduced as a single for Black History Month, in the wake of the January 6 insurrection, sets the tone. It's a hard-charging call-to-action, featuring Pat Wictor on slide guitar. With civil rights leaders like Martin Luther King, Jr., and John Lewis as his inspirations, Reggie dares to address the divisions we face. When people ask, "How did we get here," he responds, "It's who we are," but it doesn't have to be that way:

It's in our hearts | It's in our hands|

It's in our minds | But we can change!

Reggie Harris is an innovative guitarist, a fearlessly creative vocalist, and an engaging storyteller whose concert performances are infused with joy. It's clear to all that he deeply loves singing and that it is more than his work. But that's not all.

Uniquely committed to “music as a community building vehicle,” Reggie’s music shares insightful perspectives on issues of life, history, education and human rights. In the spirit of his mentors, Pete Seeger and Dr. Bernice Johnson Reagon, (founder of Sweet Honey in the Rock), Reggie is a master songleader who loves to help people discover that they can make a difference at any age, wherever they may live.

Pat Wictor first burst on the folk and acoustic scene as an innovative slide guitarist known for fresh and memorable interpretations of traditional and contemporary songs. Since then he has made his mark as a singer-songwriter penning lean and poetic songs that honor – and subvert – rural blues and gospel traditions. For seven years he toured as one third of Brother Sun, the powerful harmonizing trio with Joe Jencks and Greg Greenway, garnering critical acclaim, two #1 CDs on the Folk DJ charts, and a continent-spanning tour schedule. Wictor’s newest recording is a duo album titled Counterpoise, a collaboration with jazz vocalist Deborah Latz. The two first sang together at a vocal improvisation workshop led by Bobby McFerrin. His most recent solo release, This is Absolutely Real: Visions and Versions of Phil Ochs, reached #2 on the Folk-DJ charts and was nominated for Best Tribute Album by the Independent Music Awards.

An American by birth, Pat’s early years were spent in Venezuela, the Netherlands, Norway, England, and East Texas. His time abroad gave him an outsider’s wide perspective, and set him on a journey to understanding America – and his own Americanness – through music. His early experiences made him accustomed to charting his own course and being ready for the unexpected.

Save the dates for spring 2022 concerts. Tickets will be available next year.

Mad Agnes – April 22, 2022 50 Bloomfield Ave. at 7:30 p.m.

Mad Agnes is Margo Hennebach, Adrienne Jones and Mark Saunders. Each member arrived at the trio from a staggering list of solo accomplishments, including songwriting competitions, recordings, and the ability to sleep on any surface.

One Wild Dove video

Multi-instrumentalists all, Hennebach is classically trained in piano, Jones is self-taught on guitar and bass, and Saunders adds color with a vintage mandolin and subtle electronic processing on his guitar. The sound can be full as a concert hall or delicate as three voices singing a cappella.

Harmony-driven performance of contemporary singer-songwriter material influenced by classical, Celtic, folk/rock, PDQ Bach, and a touch of street theatre. Their lyrics, vocal intricacies and instrument prowess are unforgettable.

Magic and Myth: Music from the Old World and the New Experience the magic music of Scotland and Ireland with Seán Heely and Beth Patterson. U.S National Scottish Fiddle champion Seán Heely and bouzouki player Beth Patterson perform fiery dance tunes and ancient, soaring melodies from Scotland and Ireland.

Original compositions abound and they have rich vocal harmonies in their solid song repertoire that features ballads, sea shanties, and songs in Irish and Scottish folk tradition.

Seán plays fiddle, mandocello, shruti box, and sings in English, Irish, and Scots Gaelic.

Multi-Genre violinist/fiddler Seán Heely is one of the most creatively versatile and captivating young artists of his generation. He is a U.S National Scottish Fiddle

Champion as well as an award-winning Irish Fiddler and singer in the folk traditions of Scotland and Ireland. Seán holds a degree from University of South Carolina in Classical Violin Performance and was a 2019 Artist in Residence at Strathmore Music Center in Maryland. An educator in demand, Seán is an Adjunct Instructor at American University, he has also been on the faculty at several summer camps such as Acadia Traditional School of Music and Arts, Upper Potomac Fiddle Retreat, and Fiddle Hell Festival. He was selected to compete in the prestigious Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann All-Ireland Senior Fiddle competition in Aug 2017. He has performed in Scotland, Ireland, and at venues in the U.S such as the Kennedy Center in Washington D.C.

Seán has performed with traditional music icons such as Liz Carroll, Bonnie Rideout, Natalie Haas, Cathy Jordan, Eamon O'Leary, Zan McLeod, and Paddy Keenan.

Along with his accolades in Traditional Music, Seán made his Classical solo debut with the Virginia Symphony in 2012 performing Mozart's 5th Violin Concerto. A composer and arranger, Seán has won national awards including the 2016 Scottish Fiddling Revival's Tune writing competition. Seán was a featured soloist with the Virginia International Tattoo in Norfolk, VA in April 2017 and 2019. Recently, Sean was named the recipient of the first annual Claude Martin Memorial Life Membership Award from the Folklore Society of Greater Washington, an honor granted in recognition of his significant contributions to the local folk scene while still under age 30.

Please allow this letter to introduce you to PATH CT and our inaugural PATH 2021 Charity Golf Tournament for which we are seeking your support and/or participation. For more than 30 years, families have turned to PATH CT for guidance and support through the uncertainty, confusion and worry of parenting a child with a disability. PATH CT provides services to families that have specialized healthcare needs and developmental needs including parent to parent support, educational advocacy and training. As the CT Family to Family Health Information Center, we provide support, information, resources and training around healthcare issues. PATH CT also facilitates CT Kids As Self Advocates (CT KASA), a group of youth and young adults with disabilities or chronic health conditions that promote youth leadership. My husband and I have personally witnessed our daughter, Sammi develop from a shy, quiet young lady into a confident, independent young woman who now Co-Chairs this amazing group of young leaders. On Monday, September 20, 2021 we will be holding our PATH 2021 Charity Golf Tournament at Brownson Country Club in Huntington, CT. We are hoping that you can donate either an item or gift certificate to the raffle that will be held that night. This golf tournament will help offset funding to our programs that are critical to CT families in need of help. Your business will be promoted on our website, newsletter and social media. Please have your items submitted by August 20, 2021. See Sponsor Response Form Here.

Should you have any questions, feel free to call the Golf Tournament Director, Roy Nuss at 203-565-2475.

Sincerely,
Ruth Nuss President of the Board

It Starts With Faith: Organizing School 2021

The Organizing Strategy Team supports faith-aligned groups to empower leaders, provide training, political education and spiritual sustenance to show up to end oppression and build thriving communities.

This year's Organizing School for Teams was developed in response to volunteers, State Action Networks, and congregations' desire to deepen organizing skills, develop broader networks of folx doing faith-based organizing, and join in the work of our Side With Love campaign. Complete application by July 30th HERE. We are excited to support 20-30 cohorts for this years organizing school. This program is designed for teams that are currently engaged in social justice work. We are encouraging congregational social justice teams to apply as a cohort. Priority will be given to teams who are based in AZ, FL, GA, KY, MN, NC, PA, TX, and WI. You may apply as an individual. If admitted you will be placed in cohorts based on geographic location. All sessions are recorded and applicants regardless of acceptance into as a cohort, will have access to recorded sessions.

Cohorts will receive up to 10 hours of 1-1 organizing support following the completion of 80% of all sessions.

Sessions will take place on Wednesdays, 6:30-8:30pm ET/3:30-5:30pm PT between Aug. 25 and Nov 3.

Session 1: Orientation

Session 2: Faithful Social Justice: Telling your story

Session 3: Finding Your Role: Building power in faith organizing

Session 4: Building Organizing Infrastructure: Leadership Development and Identification

Session 5: Facing Conflict: Covenant & Transformation

Session 6: Building for a liberated future: Campaigns and program design

Session 7: Partnerships in a pandemic and recovery

Session 8: Growing your impact: Tools for evaluation and growth

Session 9: Meet the Moment: Tactics for Mobilizing Supporters and Contesting Power

Join us to build power towards a world that affirms the worth and dignity of all.In faith and solidarity,*Nicole Pressley*Field and Programs Director*UUA Organizing Strategy Teams*News from the USH Board of Directors*Your 2020-2021 USH Board*Rob Spector: President*Eve Pech: President-Elect*Bob Hewey: Treasurer*Sarah Harmon McKenzie: Secretary*Peter Meny: Spiritual Life Council Chair*Jon Covault: Administration Council Chair*Dana Donovan: Social Justice Council Chair*Tina Davies: Community Within Council Chair*Rev. Peace – as we come to the close of the USH-Enews week.
 Be kind to others – and to yourself.

Our Unitarian Universalist Principles: The member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association covenant to affirm and promote: the inherent worth and dignity of every person; justice, equity, and compassion in human relations; acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations; a free and responsible search for truth and meaning; the right of conscience and the use of the democratic process, within our congregations and in society at large; the goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all; respect for the interdependent web of all existence, of which we are a part. Consider the proposed 8th Principle as well! <https://www.8thprincipleuu.org/>.
